

Experience

Robert Fuerst is a skilled legal drafter and negotiator with more than 35 years' experience as a practicing real estate attorney, including five years with a New York Stock Exchange-listed Real Estate Investment Trust and almost 25 years with three major Cleveland law firms before joining Meyers Roman in 2010. Bob advises clients in developing, acquiring, selling, leasing and financing commercial and residential real estate, including hotels, shopping centers, warehouse/industrial buildings, apartments, condominiums and mixed-use projects. He has substantial national experience in the acquisition, development and financing of hotel properties and in negotiating and drafting retail and office leases. Bob practices law guided by his belief in zealously representing his clients while always being mindful of his clients' desire to get the deal done as expeditiously and economically as possible. He takes pride in being responsive to his clients and in crafting creative solutions to resolve difficult issues which enable a deal to move forward.
