

Experience

Ami Imbrogno is a seasoned litigator who uses her ability to listen to and build relationships with clients to anticipate their needs and help them obtain the best results possible. She is experienced and has been successful in not only all phases of litigation, but in advising clients on best practices and compliance.

Ami represents governmental entities, businesses, and individuals in several areas of law, including the following:

- Employment and Labor Law
- Governmental Tort Liability (Including compliance with the United States and Ohio Constitutions, First, Second, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments)
- Ohio Sunshine Laws (Open Meetings Act and Public Records Act)
- County, Municipal, and Local Government Law
- Energy law

Ami lives in Cleveland with her husband and enjoys CrossFit, golf, travel, and spending time with her nieces.
