

Anne C. Fantelli

FIRM ADMINISTRATIVE PARTNER

(216) 831-0042

afantelli@meyersroman.com

Anne plays a key role in the strategic leadership of the Firm. As the Firm's Administrative Partner, Anne oversees our core administrative functions and contributes to the efficiency and direction of Meyers Roman's operations. Her combined legal acumen and financial sophistication make her a trusted advisor in family law matters.

While always striving to resolve matters without litigation, Anne has extensive courtroom experience when amicable resolutions cannot be reached, including multi-jurisdictional custody litigation, prenuptial agreement enforcement, and complex matters with business valuations. She has successfully argued in various appellate courts, including extensive brief preparation and oral arguments.

Anne offers insightful, compassionate guidance in sensitive and complex cases, tailoring solutions to each client's needs while maintaining a results-driven approach. Her focus areas include:

- Prenuptial & Postnuptial Agreements
- Divorce & Dissolution
- Private Juvenile Custody
- Property Division & Business Valuation
