Jenifere R. Singleton is a seasoned family law attorney whose compassionate and strategic approach has helped countless families navigate times of transition with clarity and dignity. As Chair of Meyers Roman's Divorce & Family Law Practice, Jenifere blends more than two decades of experience with advanced training in Collaborative Law and mediation techniques to craft solutions that minimize conflict and foster long-term family well-being.

Her courtroom confidence and deep ties with Northeast Ohio's Domestic Relations and Juvenile Courts empower her to effectively represent clients – whether in amicable resolutions or complex litigation. Jenifere is a strong advocate of helping families embrace their “new normal” with empathy and informed legal support.

Jenifere provides counsel on:

- Divorce and separation
- Custody, child support, and spousal support
- Collaborative Law and mediation
- International child abduction matters under the Hague Convention
- Family business succession and domestic litigation strategy

Her thoughtful, client-centered style allows her to tailor plans that reflect the unique emotional and legal dynamics of every case.
